Longport Public Library & Museum Fall 2021

2021 FALL Reading Program and Scavenger Hunt Continue

For the first time ever, the library will be offering a Fall reading program. The program begins and biweekly prizes start September 18. The last day of the program is November 20.

Did you notice signs throughout town with the Library logo, that was our summer scavenger hunt. Keep looking for updated locations because the scavenger hunt continues in the Fall until the end of October.

Movies, Cooking Class and Luncheons Return

We are super excited to bring back movies, luncheons, and cooking classes this Fall. The luncheons and cooking classes will be held at the Guild Hall at the Church of the Redeemer (20th and Atlantic Avenue). Movies will be held in Commission Chambers at Borough Hall

All these programs will be run with current health recommendations so please call the library for updates and to register.

The Art Gallery is back in person. The September/October Featured Artist is Carole Couzens. Visit the library to see her artwork

A new Longport Scavenger Hunt until the end of October

Take a quick look around town and you might see a few new signs with QR codes; scan the code with your phone and learn about Longport History! There are a total of six stops for the Fall Scavenger Hunt.

Photography Contest

The Museum is updating our photographs and we need your help. Please submit your Longport memories to our photography contest. Pictures will need descriptions (photographer, location, subject/names, date) to be considered. Pictures will be judged in the following categories and the top photo in each category will be awarded a prize.

(1)Landscape; (2) People; (3) Architecture; (4) Animals/Wildlife; (5) Aerial.

All submitted photos must be taken in/of Longport, NJ. Historic photos welcome. Individuals can submit one photo in each category. Submissions can be made in-person or via email historicalsociety@longportpubliclibrary.org

Longport Public Library reserves the right to retain copies of submitted photographs in the Longport Historical Museum and/or for promotional purposes
